

ABRANTIE COLLEGE HITS 5 YEARS

One of Ghana's top career institutions, Abrantie College of Cosmetology, has unveiled the planned activities for its fifth anniversary celebration at a press conference in Accra.

Addressing invited journalists at the College conference hall, CEO King David Thompson announced that there would be an anniversary concert and a graduation ceremony on November 1.

He also said that activities including Sports Competition, Beach party at Sajuna, and Peace walk have been planned to mark the celebrations. The 5th Anniversary celebration will come off at The Ghana National Theatre and is coupled with graduation of the 6th batch of about 100 trained beauty professionals. Nobel Nketia and some top musicians are expected to thrill audience to stunning performances.

Abrantie College of Cosmetology is a ultra- modern Hair and Beauty Care Training Institute in Accra that started in 2007. It is accredited with Ghana Education Service and National Vocational Training Institute and is recognized as one of the finest Beauty Schools in Ghana and West Africa. The College offers career training programs in Cosmetology, Beauty Therapy, Barbering, Nail Technology and Make-up Artistry. Abrantie has produced over two thousand (2000) practitioners, majority of whom are managing their own salons or other manufacturing plants as PR, Sales Executives and Educationists. Students at the College have written various National Examinations that lead to the Polytechnic or University. The College has the distinction of being the only institution that commenced the formal training and has trained students to the highest Level (NCC, Cert I & II).

Voted the Best School in Softsheen Carson's Inter-Colleges Competition in 2009 as well as winning the first and second positions in the National Golden Scissor Awards organized by L'Oreal West Africa, in 2010, Abrantie has set the pace for excellence in the Cosmetology Industry in Ghana today. Our Students are awarded college certificates on completion, and they write national exams with NVTI that enables them to further anywhere in the world to the highest level. At Abrantie valid certificates are awarded. About eighty percent (80 %) of students usually sit for (NVTI) with twenty percent (20%) sitting for other examining bodies such as City & Guilds. Also, provision is made for practicing stylists who do not have the requisite qualification are prepared for the examinations through the remedial class to enable them acquire NVTI or City & Guilds Certificates.

Source:

Story from Modern Ghana News:
<http://www.modernghana.com/blogs/422448/31/abrantie-college-hits-5-years.html>

Published: Sunday, October 07, 2012

All trademarks and copyrights on this page are owned by their respective owners.